

What's on this term?

We're exploring Europe!

This term we will be travelling around parts of Europe by car, bus, plane, train, camper van and boat. We will be talking about different food traditions.

We will be stamping our passports, tasting different foods, learning how to say 'hello' in the different languages, talking about the weather in each country and finding each of the countries on the globe and making the different flags for each country. We will be making postcards from each country.

15th April: England

We will be having a cup of tea and rich tea biscuits for snacks this week. We will learn about London Buses, talking about our Royal Family, and make royal crowns.
